Advocacy for Innocent Victims aims to support innocent victims and survivors of terrorism and 'other Troubles related violence' (in the Northern Ireland context) with any advocacy related issue.

We also seek to raise awareness of issues affecting our constituency of victims and survivors regarding their justice, truth and accountability needs.

We will work with innocent victims and survivors of terrorism and 'other Troubles related violence' to assist them in their journey of personal healing.

Who are the 'Innocent'?

AfIV believes that the innocent victims and survivors of the 'Troubles' are those who through no fault of their own have suffered from a 'Troubles related incident' - whether bereaved of a loved one, physically or psychologically injured, those who care for such individuals or those displaced from their home.

AfIV Offers:

- Confidentiality and Empathy.
- Support to engage with the PSNI's Legacy Unit.
- Support to engage with Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland and Garda Síochána Ombudsman Commission.
- Support to engage with the Coroner's Office.
- Support to engage with other relevant investigative bodies.
- Promotion of victim and survivor issues within the public and media domains.
- Networking groups and individuals who are innocent victims and survivors of terrorism and 'other Troubles related violence.'
- Sign-posting to other complementary services within and external to SEFF.
