What is the Advocacy for Innocent Victims Project?

Advocacy for Innocent Victims aims to support innocent victims and survivors of terrorism and 'other Troubles related criminal violence' (in the Northern Ireland context) with an advocacy related issue, particularly but not exclusively related to their justice, truth and accountability needs.

Who are the 'Innocent?'

Innocent victims and survivors of the 'Troubles' are those who through no fault of their own have suffered - whether through being bereaved of a loved one, suffering from physical or psychological injury, providing care for such individuals or those who have been displaced from their home/land.

AfiV Offers:

- Confidentiality and Empathy
- Support to engage with the PSNI's Legacy Unit
- Support in having your experiences of Terrorism/ 'The Troubles' recorded
- Media skills training and other tailored supports to empower victims/survivors to speak out for themselves
- Support to engage with Police Ombudsman for Northern Ireland and Garda Síochána Commission
- Support to engage with the Coroner's Office
- Support to engage with other relevant investigative bodies
- Promotion of victim and survivor issues within the public and media domains
- Networking groups and individuals who are innocent victims and survivors of terrorism and 'other Troubles related violence'
- Sign-posting to other services within SEFF i.e. Counselling, Complementary Therapies, Welfare Advice and Appeals/Tribunal representation and onward referral beyond SEFF
